A HOLISTIC APPROACH TO COACHING MASTERY

With Marianna Lead, MCC

It's one thing to know the core competencies, it's another to truly understand, interpret, and apply them holistically in your coaching sessions. As an experienced ICF Assessor, Marianna Lead, MCC, has identified holistic techniques that will expand your awareness and raise your coaching skill level. You will learn how a holistic approach defines masterful coaching and the energy it brings.

➔ If you are planning to submit your coaching recording for ICF peer review evaluation -- and/or if you want to take your coaching skills to a higher level -- you should definitely plan on registering for this workshop.

What are the learning objectives?

- Discover the holistic qualities of the ICF core competencies
- Avoid a common mistake that can affect your coaching performance
- Holistically address all aspects of WHO your clients are while being in the moment
